

Appearance-defined

Interface-bounded — task average — trained on one contrast, tested on another (e.g. T1n → T2w) — that pair at the swap: significant gain — significant loss — not significant values per training → test contrast pair: supplementary tables relative = Δ Dice at the real-fill step ÷ the panel's noise-fill Dice (the level the step starts from)